

HEADGATE THEATRE PRODUCTIONS - PANTO 2018

ALADDIN by Ben Crocker

AUDITION DATE – Sunday 2nd September 2pm (named parts and adult chorus only)
VENUE – Headgate Theatre Studio

PRODUCTION WEEK – Sunday 2nd - Sunday 9th December (Evening performance dates Wed 5th December – Saturday 8th December. Matinees on Sat 8th and Sun 9th)

Director Charlie Davison is looking for lovely people to fill the roles listed below. Charlie is looking for principals, chorus members and musicians. People who like a good laugh - and are also prepared to put in some proper hard work and serious rehearsal.

Ben Crocker's script is a fast moving, up-to-date telling of the traditional Aladdin story - a folk tale which first came to Europe over 200 years ago as one of the "1001 Arabian Nights" and is just as popular now as it was then. This version is full of verbal and physical comedy, dance, movement and great songs. As the action transports the audience from the empty deserts of Arabia to the bustling streets and slums of Old Peking, we will be telling a moving story of true love, terrible greed and a deadly struggle for absolute power. And a panda....

Are you a keen musician? (keyboard, drum pads, bass, other?). Please email Charlie to find out more: cdavison@aspects.net
