Vanya and Sonia and Masha and Spike

By Christopher Durang

In a crumbling old farmhouse in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, sibling non-achievers, Vanya and Sonia, wait for the daily visit of the blue heron. Their peace is shattered by an alarming proclamation from the cleaning woman/soothsayer, the arrival of an egocentric movie star sister and bright young things armed with technology. As mayhem ensues, we are confronted by the question once raised by Anton Chekhov, “What will it be like if the whole world goes to rack and ruin?”.

Christopher Durang’s Tony award-winning play is quirky, funny and sneakily poignant. “...a ton of fun, even if you can’t tell your Seagull from your Uncle Vanya”. New York Post

Director: Wendy Smith

Cast: Ella Blaxill (The Comedy of Errors, Wivenhoe Open Air Shakespeare); Abi Cunliffe (Dreambag, Colchester Fringe, Matilda Liar, Mercury Studio); Eleanor Kent (Mosquitoes, Playhouse Creatures, Headgate Theatre); Sallie Mills Lewis (Splendour, The Woman who Cooked her Husband, Mercury Studio); Anthony Roberts (A Christmas Carol – Touring, Matilda Liar, Mercury Studio) and Chris Smith (Dirty, Mercury Studio, A Matter of Life and Death, Headgate Theatre).
